HARVARD GSD DONOR HONOR ROLL

DEAR GSD ALUMNI & FRIENDS,

The GSD is a place where imagination meets making, where a community of students, faculty, and creative minds from across the University and around the world come together to envision a better future through design. It is with the generous support of our donors that such innovative and collaborative work is made possible.

This past year marked the 75th Anniversary of the GSD and the 375th Anniversary of Harvard University. This occasion presented us with a special opportunity to commemorate and reflect upon our shared history and future trajectory; many of the images from our GSD 075 exhibition, Alumni Weekend events, and Harvard's University-wide festivities are included in the enclosed honor roll. It was immensely inspiring for the School to celebrate its legacy as a continually evolving institution with a strong international outlook and deep commitment to societal impact. As the GSD looks ahead, our faculty and students remain dedicated to these values and are eager to adapt them to the needs of the future.

Our students are taught to use design as an agent of change—to engage with and ultimately transform global society. With your contribution to the GSD, you help to ensure that future generations of designers will be fully prepared to lead in the shaping of our world's increasingly complex built environment.

On behalf of everyone here at the GSD, I thank you for all that you do to make this School the dynamic, exciting environment that it is. We are grateful.

Best wishes,

MOHSEN MOSTAFAVI

DONOR HONOR ROLL
JULY 1, 2011 –
JUNE 30, 2012

We are thrilled to thank and acknowledge the following alumni and friends who generously gave their support to the Harvard University Graduate School of Design in fiscal year 2012.

EDWARD MCNAMARA LF '95

⁸ During my year as a Loeb Fellow, I got exposed to big ideas, I honed my leadership skills, and I learned how to learn again. It changed my life. I donate to the GSD to help the next generation of designers and planners get the same chance that I got to benefit from the rich resources of Harvard and the GSD.

¹² I give to all of my alma maters annually on principle. I am unable to give a lot, but I know that my small, but consistent donations are important to any school... Returning annually to the GSD as part of the Alumni Council and working with graduates from a spectrum of decades and design disciplines to engage the GSD alumni/ae community has strengthened my appreciation of the value of our GSD education. My GSD stint was a period of discovery and exposure to different approaches to analyzing and solving problems.

This education launched me into the professional design world where I roll up my sleeves daily to synthesize complex information and work with interdisciplinary teams to shape the built environment. In my more recent interactions with GSD faculty and each new crop of graduates, I am tremendously impressed by the sense of mission of the school and its commitment to the most advanced thinking about academic and professional practices. I feel invigorated each time I visit the school and realize its impact.

The Graduate School of Design is a special place. To me, it is important to support the GSD for a number of reasons. First, the school allowed me to not only be exposed to the best of design thought, tradition, new technologies and creative skills, but it gave me the confidence to become the professional that I have become... Second, the GSD represents the best design community in the world. Our alumni are literally everywhere in the world adding to the built environment in inspiring ways... Third, the great strength of the school has always been its exceptional even extraordinary students, students who after graduating continually join the ranks of the most creative professional leaders in all of the design and planning professions. How could I not support all of this?

²⁶ Attending the GSD has been one of the best decisions I have ever made in my entire life. Instead of merely being just another two years of “schooling” it became ever so much more than that. I met people that inspired me, supported me, and challenged me in positive and constructive ways. I was engaged in ideas, dialogues, and collaborative works that have shaped the person I am today, in all ways professionally and personally. The GSD experience will forever continue to inform the way in which I work and live.

Without the continued support of its alumni and contributors, this would not have been possible. For this, I am thankful and therefore committed to supporting the development of our future generation of passionate, innovative, and responsible designers.

I believe that as Alumni, we must provide continued support for the current and future students, to allow them the opportunity to focus on their studies without being overly burdened by the financial stresses of their education. This helps all our industries by increasing both the depth and breadth of thought and learning that students can develop during their time at the GSD...The GSD continues to provide me with the opportunity to meet and collaborate with many great alumni from all over the world...They provide the personal skills for the individual to succeed in their professional careers and become leaders in their community.

NELSON K. CHEN AB '75, MARCH '78

My wife, Margaret, and I have always believed in the vital role of education. And, higher education comes at a higher price. The GSD has consistently been positioned at the forefront of graduate level education in architecture as well as landscape and urban design...Simply put, my years at Harvard have shaped my thinking, attitudes and career. So, it is a privilege to help make that experience available to current students with financial need. The GSD is highly regarded worldwide, and its alumni are recognized for bringing essential leadership to our various design professions.

SERT COUNCIL

The Josep Lluís Sert Council for annual leadership giving was launched in the fall of 2011 during the GSD's 75th anniversary celebration. It recognizes those alumni and friends whose generosity has made a deep impact on the GSD, our students, and the future of design.

We are thrilled to acknowledge the following FY'12 Sert Council members:

Membership is based on the fiscal year (July 1 - June 30) in which your gift is received and the following criteria:

- Gifts and Pledge Payments of $1,000+
- Graduates in the classes of 2004-2008, gifts of $250+
- Graduates in the classes of 2009-2012, gifts of $100+

My reason for supporting the GSD is simple – the GSD offered me a magnificent portal into a wondrous profession. In return, I feel I should help increase its magnificence and ensure it is accessible.

THE WILLIAM A. DOEBELE FELLOWSHIP FOR COMMUNITY DESIGN

The William A. Doebele Fellowship for Community Design was established with a generous gift from alumni of the Loeb Fellowship Program to provide endowment support for GSD students to apply their education and training towards community design needs. The gift recognizes and honors the legacy of William A. Doebele, the Frank Backus Williams Professor of Urban Planning and Design, Emeritus upon the occasion of the 40th Anniversary of the Loeb Fellowship in October 2010. In establishing this fund, the alumni of the Loeb Fellowship honor a leader, mentor, and teacher who made a tremendous impact upon their educations, careers, and lives.

The inaugural Doebele Fellow will be named in the Spring of 2013. The GSD is grateful to the following alumni and friends for their support of this great fundraising effort:

Both the gift, coming from generations of Loeb Fellows, and its objectives, for design students to apply their education towards serving their communities, create a remarkable and enduring legacy at Harvard in my name. I am honored and humbled by this generous tribute.

My time as a Loeb Fellow at the GSD transformed my life. As a result, I have always been passionate about giving back—creating and teaching multi-disciplinary classes, serving on Alumni Councils and raising and giving money. I am thrilled to be able to support an institute which can lever my resources to support the next generation of transformers.

⁵⁰ Giving back to the GSD allows me to express my appreciation for an incredible institution that fundamentally changed my life. I am grateful for the education I received, the friends that I made, and the wonderful out of classroom experiences I had just a few years ago. The GSD makes me feel valued as a donor and I am comfortable in knowing that my contribution goes directly to where it is needed most - towards helping students.
