Dear Alumni and Friends,

The Harvard University Graduate School of Design understands that its mission is to educate designers to be bold thinkers, strategic idealists, societal catalysts, and leading practitioners, and to make major contributions to the body of design knowledge through speculative thinking and research activities. For this work to have maximum impact within the built environment, the GSD must remain the vital locus for the creation of knowledge in these areas of design. We need to continue to develop the technologies, processes, and functions that will both enhance how our buildings, landscapes, and cities perform for their users and confront the future challenges of our contemporary societies. This relationship between knowledge and societal impact is central to contemporary design pedagogy and research at the GSD.

Our work would not be possible without generous philanthropic support from our alumni and friends. On behalf of everyone at the GSD, I am grateful for all that you do to make this School such a vibrant, collaborative environment. Thank you.

Best wishes,

I donated to the campaign for the class gift because I wanted to be part of a larger group of donors who could say, “Look what my graduating class was able to do for our institution.” The GSD also provided me with a very generous scholarship for two years, and I want to make sure that future students have the same opportunity that I was provided.

Donor Honor Roll

We are delighted to thank and acknowledge the following alumni and friends who generously gave to the Harvard University Graduate School of Design in Fiscal Year 2013. Their gifts provide vital resources to advance teaching and research, and support the school's critical priority of financial aid through the GSD Fund.

Honoring the Legacy of Walter Gropius

Professor William (Bill) Breger MArch '45

Early in his career, Professor William Breger spent two years as an assistant to Walter Gropius—in fact, it was just the two of them in the office. “We had a tremendous professional dialogue—I learned a great deal from him. He was a brilliant and kind man.”

At 91, Professor Breger recalls Gropius fondly, “I admired his great humility. My own life has been a modest interpretation of his greatness. Some might say very modest.” Like Gropius, Professor Breger prioritized teaching as well as practicing. “I owe a great deal to Harvard, the School of Design, and to Gropius. In everything that I do in life, I am always conscious of the great gift I was given, and I wanted to give back.”

The Professor William Breger Fund, endowed with a $500,000 gift, was created in 2012 to honor the legacy of Gropius. “Harvard is a wonderful place that cares about values. I hope that my gift will help students to explore the social, structural, and philosophical honesty of architecture as Gropius understood it.”

Expanding the Scope of International Financial Aid at the GSD

Nelson K. Chen AB '75, MArch '78 and Margaret W. K. Wong

Nelson Chen and his wife, Margaret Wong, believe in the vital role of education, understanding that quality higher education comes at a cost. In 2011, they pledged $100,000 toward the GSD Annual Fund, setting the bar for donations from other alumni. Despite his physical distance from Cambridge, Mr. Chen actively supports the GSD in many ways – he has created a student prize for housing design, supported Asia GSD, served on both the Dean's Advisory Council and the GSD Visiting Committee, and acted as Asia Chair of the Sert Council.

“My years at Harvard, both in the College and at the GSD, profoundly shaped my thinking, attitudes and career. And, they continue to inform my professional and personal life on a daily basis. I consider it a privilege to help make a similar opportunity and experience available to a current generation of students with financial need.”

Mr. Chen and Mrs. Wong hope that their donation will support international financial aid, “Until less than a decade ago, international students were not eligible for scholarships at the GSD. Yet their presence enriches and informs the overall academic experience, while promoting intellectual and cultural exchange that benefit future generations both domestically and abroad in our increasingly global society. I was gratified to see one of my most talented former undergraduate students in Hong Kong able to attain a MArch degree at the GSD – it was only made possible with a scholarship.”

I consider it a privilege to help make a similar opportunity and experience available to a current generation of students with financial need.

Creating a legacy at the GSD

Gregory Steven Baldwin
AB '62, MArch '66, MAUD '67

As evidenced by his lengthy and distinguished professional career, Gregory Steven Baldwin FAIA, FAAR is remembered as a calm and articulate visionary who promoted process and collaboration. Mr. Baldwin had an ability to build consensus on the best ideas and was committed to creating livable and inspirational urban environments. He used these unique skills working on projects that span the country from Washington, D.C. and New Jersey to California, Washington state and his hometown of Portland, Oregon.

The Gregory S. Baldwin Fellowship was created in 2012, with a $500,000 gift from his family's Lamb-Baldwin Foundation, whose board includes his wife Joan and children Benjamin and Sera. The Fellowship was created to honor, celebrate, and perpetuate his legacy. It is intended to support a top-performing student in their final semester of study in Architecture, Landscape Architecture, or Urban Design.

According to his daughter Sera Kimura, "My father thought that Harvard changed his life. Harvard opened endless opportunities for him and he always wanted to give back. He thrived within the GSD community and remained involved throughout his life. Inspired by the Rudy Bruner Award, he told me before he died that he hoped one day to create his own award to promote design through Harvard."

In addition to receiving three degrees from Harvard, Mr. Baldwin also met and shared five of those Harvard years with his wife Joan in Cambridge. Mr. Baldwin was an intellectually rich man, a fine conversationalist, a motivating speaker, and a great collaborator who credited Harvard in his development of these attributes.

My father thought that Harvard changed his life. Harvard opened endless opportunities for him and he always wanted to give back. – Sera Kimura

The GSD has not only given me an education but also an identity which I am proud to wear among many esteemed colleagues. Our GSD community is fueled by the new ideas, diligence and ambitions of its youngest crew, and our contribution is a small token of support and recognition.

Harvard Design: Los Angeles was held November 9 – 10, 2012. Over 150 GSD faculty, alumni and friends from around the world gathered in Los Angeles to celebrate the GSD's role in the future of design.

On Friday, alumni led site visits in downtown LA including the Walt Disney Concert Hall and the Inner-City Arts campus. Saturday's events started at the Annenberg Beach House in Santa Monica where GSD faculty and alumni including Thom Mayne MArch '78, Andrew Witt MDesS '02, MArch '07, Martha Welborne LF '92, and Ken Smith MLA '86 tackled subjects such as "The Future of Cities and Urbanization" and "The Future of Design Technology." The summit concluded with a gala event on Saturday evening at the Hammer Museum.

The weekend was a resounding success and reinforced the GSD's global reach and ability to impact societal change through design excellence. Kimberly J. Everett MUP '98 summed it up well: "Although we are often reminded through intermittent articles and newsletters about the significance the GSD has in the design world, it is not until you sit amongst those making the news that you realize the power that we as graduates have."

“

It was an honor to attend, and my time there gave me the tools to be a leader in the real estate industry. I want to give to the GSD to ensure the institution only grows stronger, so others can enjoy the same opportunity that I did!

Josep Lluís Sert Council

The Josep Lluís Sert Council recognizes those alumni and friends whose generosity has made a deep impact on the GSD, its students, and the future of design. The support of our donors provides important funding that expands financial aid and creates opportunities for innovative academic initiatives. Established in the Fall of 2011, the Sert Council is a leadership giving society that acknowledges donors who have made annual gifts of $1,000 or more with adjusted levels for recent graduates.

The GSD and the Sert Council Chair, William S. Ehrlich BArch '67, are delighted to thank the following FY '13 Sert Council members:

On March 1, 2013, the Harvard University Graduate School of Design celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Druker Traveling Fellowship with an exhibition and symposium that gathered many of its past recipients. The Fellowship was established through the generosity of Ronald M. Druker LF '76 and the Trustees of the Bertram A. Druker Charitable Foundation. This gift is a result of Mr. Druker's affinity for the GSD, his eight-year teaching career and his Loeb experience.

The Fellowship is awarded annually for students to carry out comprehensive research-based travel throughout the world. Recipients are leaders in the design of urban environments and are expected to share their experiences with the GSD community through a lecture or symposium. The goal of this endowed fellowship "is made with the intention of creating urban environments that are practical and imaginative responses to the broad spectrum of physical, political, financial and aesthetic concerns of society."

"The GSD played a very important role in my life, both through my initial involvement as a Loeb Fellow and then eight years on the urban design faculty. I learned a significant amount during my time as a Loeb and through my colleagues and students, many of whom are still friends today.

The Druker Fellowship was born out of my interest in travel. I gained insight from visiting the rest of the world, and I wanted to share that opportunity with students. The 25th anniversary celebration was gratifying because I was able to see the Fellows again, to hear of their experiences since the fellowship, and to understand what it meant to them both personally and professionally. It's a privilege for me to know them and to see how they have benefited."

— Ron Druker LF '76

H. Langford Warren Society

The H. Langford Warren Society recognizes all alumni and friends of the GSD who have provided generous future support through life income plans, bequest provisions, or other deferred gift arrangements. The Warren Society is named for H. Langford Warren, an exemplary leader and visionary, who founded the School of Architecture at Harvard. He established a model of cross-disciplinary collaboration that is still a hallmark of the GSD, joining the fields of Science and Fine Arts to the study of Architecture and helped develop the nascent field of Landscape Architecture.

Giving my time to the school has reconnected me with alumni, introduced me to so many more and allowed me a window into the minds of the students with which we eventually collaborate. The GSD is changing. My practice and my thought process is better for having re-engaged with this amazing place.
